

Position Description

On Belay is a non-profit organization that provides adventure-based programs for children who have a family member diagnosed with cancer. Through our programs, participants have fun, feel supported, and uncover their inner resilience.

On Belay is seeking a wilderness trip leader to co-lead the Teen Outdoor Adventure (TOA) Program, a 4-day backpacking trip in the White Mountains of New Hampshire August 6-9, 2019. The TOA Co-Leader plays a critical role in meeting On Belay's objectives by working directly with the Program Director to brainstorm, coordinate, plan, and implement the Teen Outdoor Adventure Program.

Primary Responsibilities

1. Assisting with keeping the TOA participants safe during the trip through careful planning, risk management, and troubleshooting.
2. Assisting the Program Director in brainstorming the framework of the four days to meet On Belay objectives.
3. Assisting the Program Director with prepping materials for the TOA trip.
4. Leading all assigned activities during the TOA trip.
5. Playing a lead role in TOA participants having fun, feeling supported, and uncovering their inner resilience.
6. Having fun!

Qualifications

1. Experience leading or co-leading backpacking trips
2. Experience leading or co-leading programs for children (preferably teens)
3. Knowledge of adventure/experiential program principles
4. Minimum Wilderness First Aid certification or equivalent
5. Ability to develop rapport with teens and
6. Be a mentor and role model

Compensation for the entirety of the contract will be $600 including all hut, food, and equipment fees. This will be given after the completion of the trip. The Co-Leader is required to be present at pre-trip planning meetings (dates are flexible) and the full trip starting Monday, Aug. 5th through Friday, Aug. 9th, 2019.

To apply, please email cover letter and resume to info@on-belay.org